HBC Code of Ethics

The Haflinger Breeders Co-op has adopted the following code of ethics to promote high standards of conduct and personal integrity among breeders and owners of Haflinger horses. Members shall bear in mind that a Code of Ethics is more than a set of rules; it is a commitment to a high standard of behavior in owning, breeding, training and selling Haflinger horses and adherence to the spirit of the Code is as important as adherence to its specific provisions. All members of HBC shall read and by their signature, agree to abide by the Code of Ethics: I understand that by joining HBC I am joining a team with common goals and obligations to operate with the spirit of cooperation, respect and support for all members of the HBC. I shall at all times, whether at home, at shows or at other equine events, display good sportsmanship and conduct myself in a manner that imparts credit to HBC and the Haflinger breed. I willingly accept the role of breed ambassador. I acknowledge my obligation to uphold the highest standard of sportsmanship and at no time will there be the appearance of impropriety or actual impropriety by my actions. Failure of members to abide by this Code of Ethics shall result in a loss of membership in HBC and withdrawal of any and all privileges such membership might enjoy, along with forfeiture of any dues or fees paid as well as any other such action as might be deemed appropriate by the HBC elected board.
